

Photographing Montana, 1894-1928

The Life and Work of Evelyn Cameron
by Donna M. Lucey

Over 150 striking photographs of eastern Montana from the 1890s through the 1920s portray a vanished way of life.
268 pages, cloth $60.00, paper $35.00

Jeannette Rankin A Political Woman by James J. Lopach and Jean A. Luckowski

University of Montana professors Lopach and Luckowski demythologize Rankin, showing her to be a talented, driven, and deeply divided woman. Revealing her complexities along with her accomplishments, this will be the definitive biography of this pathbreaking politician for years to come.

312 pages, b&w photo, cloth $34.95

Memories of a Big Sky British War Bride by Irene Hope Hedrick

"'Twill be all right come morning, luv.'" Irene's childhood in the little village of Sankey Bridges in Lancashire, England, was filled with the reassurance of her mother's words of comfort. This moving memoir reveals how the echo of her mother's words followed her to her new life in rural Montana and sustained her through dark days. A riveting testament to the fortitude of one woman's spirit.
356 pages, historic photos, paper $16.95

Movie Stars & Rattlesnakes The Heyday of Montana Live Television by Norma Beatty Ashby

A light-hearted, fascinating, and sometimes hilarious story of Ashby's twenty-six year career at KRTV, twenty-four as host and producer of KRTV's Today in Montana, the longest-running locally produced program in Montana television history. In the course of 7,000 shows, Ashby talked to Montana governors and first ladies, and people ranging from movie star Clint Eastwood to rattlesnake handler Cyril Colarchek.

160 pages, 90 b&w photos, paper $19.95

Black Cherries by Grace Stone Coates introduction by Mary Clearman Blew

Originally published in 1931, Black Cherries played out against the backdrop of rural hardship and deprivation on the family's Kansas farm. In this series of linked stories the child narrator, Veve, cannot fathom all the mysteries of her family's life together.

99 pages, paper $14.95

WILLA LITERARY AWARD FINALIST

Grace Stone Coates Her Life in Letters by Lee Rostad

Grace Stone Coates is the extraordinary story of a demure housewife and her personal correspondence with William Saroyan as well as Montana literary lion, H.G. Merriam, Native American writer Frank Bird Linderman, Charles M. Russell, art historian James Rankin, and many others. It is a very engaging adventure that reveals the brilliant, passionate woman that is Grace Stone Coates.

334 pages, cloth $26.95, paper $19.95

Also available:

Grace Stone Coates Honey Wine and Hunger Root by Lee Rostad

Grace Stone Coates' poetry and other writings interwoven with biographical narrative provided by Rostad.

106 pages, historic photos, cloth $15.00

Breaking Clean by Judy Blunt

On a ranch miles from nowhere, Blunt grew up with cattle and snakes, outhouses and isolation, epic blizzards and devastating prairie fires. Gritty, lyrical, unsentimental and wise.

303 pages, paper $13.95

When the Meadowlark Sings by Nedra Sterry

Born in 1918 in Fort Benton, Montana, Sterry has crafted a remarkable memoir of life on the Montana prairies and a childhood defined in equal measure by poverty and grace, hard work and family ties.

223 pages, paper $12.95

Upstairs Girls Prostitution in the American West by Michael Rutter

Rutter gives a colorful, in-depth portrait of prostitution's place in the West. Upstairs Girls highlights the role gender and sex played in the settling of the West—it also exposes the multifaceted, too-often tragic, world of the Western prostitute.

120 pages, paper $14.95

The Man Who Shot Liberty Valance And A Man Called Horse, The Hanging Tree, and Lost Sister The Great Western Stories of Dorothy M. Johnson

These classic tales have never been collected in one book until now. The Western Writer's Association of America ranked these four as the best short stories of the 20th Century. This edition is destined to earn a place in every school and western library.

216 pages, paper $12.95

The Montana Frontier One Woman's West by Joyce Litz

This true story of a Victorian-era young woman who, in 1899, follows her husband to a small town with the improbable name of Gilt Edge, Montana, is a classic novel that traces her family's file on a frontier that was no longer unspoiled.
264 pages, cloth $23.95

Perma Red by Debra Magpie Earling

This is a love-crossed saga about a young woman coming of age under perilous circumstances and about the consequences of her often contradictory desires.
296 pages, paper $14.00

Calamity Jane The Woman and the Legend by James D. McLaird

A compelling portrait of an unconventional woman who more than once turned the tables on those who sought to condemn or patronize her. Also included are dozens of photos—many never before seen—depicting Jane in her many guises. This is the long-awaited biography of Martha Canary and the last word on Calamity Jane.

384 pages, 48 b&w photos, illus., maps, cloth $29.95

The Lady Rode Bucking Horses by Dee Marvinne

Marvine tells the remarkable story of the girl who became Lady Bucking Horse Champion of the World—twice—and went on to become a western performer and legendary rancher. This dramatic narrative presents a fascinating look at the pre- rodeo era and the extraordinary woman who became a world champion is based on family archives, newspaper articles, and personal interviews.

256 pages, b&w photos, paper $14.95

